

POSITION ADVERTISED: AUTOMATION TECHNICIAN SOUTH
--

ESSENTIAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The Technician will need to undertake the following in the technical support department:

- Technical support primarily DF products, but scope of work will also include support on the entire basket of products available from Netafim.
- Development of Auto Cad drawings & design
- Assist in the undertaking of technical projects & Beta Sites as and when needed
- Direct report to DF Technical Manager, with secondary report to DF Product Manager where needed
- Assist with Assembly.
 - Automation irrigation dosing units
 - Controllers in cabinets with protection devices
 - Radio units
 - Testing software + hardware (beta sites)
 - Wiring of cabinets and panels
- Troubleshoot
 - Controller hardware
 - Controller software
 - Telephonic support to dealers and end users
 - On-Site support to dealers and end users – South Africa & SADC Countries
- Training on DF Products
 - Training of dealers and end users on correct usage of Netafim automation equipment
- Filter Bank
 - Where required assist with the servicing of filter banks and back flush controllers

Travel - The position can entail travel throughout the country as well as surrounding countries.

Education and Experience

National Diploma/BTech/Degree in one of the following disciplines:

- Engineering/Electrical/Electronic/Mechatronics
- Drivers Licence
- 3-5 years' relevant experience

Preferred skills/fields of knowledge:

- ELV electrical systems
- VSD / PLC
- Computer hardware systems
- Hydraulics / Flow Dynamics
- Knowledge of AutoCAD and Inventor drawings

Please note: the preferred qualification may be lowered in the case of extensive knowledge and competency in one of these fields.

Employment conditions

Permanent employment, subject to probation period of three (3) months.

To apply please email your cv to Abigail along with all relevant documentation at abigail.samuels@netafim.com